

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

1 August 1984

Ms Monica Goldberg
EIB Editor, Perspectives
American Historical Association
400 A Street, S.E.
Washington, D.C. 20003

Dear Ms Goldberg:

I stopped by the AHA offices yesterday afternoon with the enclosed EIB advertisement, and was told that you were away until next Monday. Rather than leaving the ad I am sending it now, since there are some special arrangements I would like to make for it.

Until some decisions are made here I am not certain that I shall want to enter this ad in the September issue of Perspectives. I would therefore be grateful if you would hold the ad for further instructions, which I shall get to you by Friday noon, 10 August, at the very latest. I can be reached here at [redacted] and in any event I shall give you a call the beginning of next week about this. I shall be very grateful if you can hold the ad for a few days on this contingent basis.

STAT

With many thanks and all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

/s/

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian

Enclosure

Distribution:

- Orig - Addressee w/att
- 1 - C/HS File w/att
- 1 - HS Chrono w/att
- 1 - Subject File w/att

30 July 1984

CIA History

Central Intelligence Agency seeks Ph.D. in recent history (preferably U.S. diplomatic or military) for appointment as member of its History Staff, to research and write classified histories of CIA, its activities, development and role in government. This permanent History Staff position in Washington, D.C., will be filled at the GS-12 ($30,549 to 39,711) or GS-13 ($36,327 to 47,226) level, depending upon experience. Demonstrated first-class historical research and writing skills required, editing and official history experience desirable. Applications close 15 October 1984; U.S. Citizenship required. Send vita and short writing sample to: Chief Historian, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C. 20505. EOE/AA.